

The Summit

The Summit is an extraordinary event for you to join with other remarkable women. Programs of workshops and speakers deliver education and knowledge to enhance your leadership role and gain confidence. Networking, formal and informal, offer opportunities to make personal connections to experience the power of W.I.S.E.

What participants say about the Summit

- An incredible event that empowers women in the industrial market like none other
- Provided tools for me to be more successful and a stronger contributor to the organization
- I will be a more valuable/better manager/leader
- The summit has helped me grow in my professional development which will ultimately have a positive effect on my work product and attitude

Programming

This year's Professional Development sessions have been designed to enhance your competencies in the areas of Coaching and Self-Awareness. Expert facilitators in this field will guide us through rich content along with increased levels of hands-on learning enabling you to achieve extraordinary results both professionally and personally.

Tuesday begins with our 2019 Impact Award. Programming begins with the keynote address and workshop from Joe Contrera, President of ALIVE@WORK@LLC. You on how to achieve extraordinary results through mastering the art of leading, coaching & influencing others through a power vs. force continuum.

During the lunch break, Lori Mata and Marisol Fernandez, will discuss the 2019-2020 W.I.S.E. Strategic Initiatives

Our second Tuesday workshop How to Offer Feedback as a Gift People Actually Want to Receive features Dianna Anderson, founder and CEO of Cylent. When feedback is used as an integral part of "in the moment" coaching conversations, people are able to recognize blind spots and discover opportunities for doing things differently. Those are the kinds of conversations that make change happen.

Wednesday's half-day session begins with a keynote Make Good Choices and Achieve More by Tammy Miller, CEO of Border States Electric.

To send us off Wednesday Jenn Chloupek from Sherpa Coaching session Why It Matters is a guiding principle that influences where to direct our energy, effort and passion.

Networking

Monday kicks off with a Community Service opportunity with Rise Against Hunger, whose vision is a world without hunger. We will package meals to lend a hand to people around the world in need of critical aid.

The opening on Monday night takes place on the breath-taking Pacific Promenade Lawn at the Ritz Carlton, Laguna Niguel. It starts with a themed cocktail reception Puttin' on the Ritz – Coastal Style followed by dinner under the stars. Coastal chic attire is encouraged.

Tuesday off-site dinner is at EL DE ADOBE CAPISTRANO in downtown San Juan Capistrano. Wear your favorite casual Spanish attire.

Don't forget the informal opportunities throughout – breakfast, breaks, lunch wherever we are for 2 ½ days.
