

ELLEN STOKEY

Buffington Scholarship Winner - 2017

HI-POTENTIAL FOR HIRE!

One of our very own Buffington Scholarship winners is looking to join the industry! The ISA foundation awarded Ellen her scholarship in 2017, supporting her throughout her four years at The Ohio State University.

Ellen is graduating in December with a B.S. in Industrial and Systems Engineering—Supply Chain Specialization and is now looking to join the channel.

She is interested in Business, Supply Chain Planning, Technical Sales, and Logistics.

Interested in donating to the ISA Foundation to continue supporting scholarships for high-potential emerging leaders like Ellen?
